*DubaiDUBAI: AMONG THE COLOSSI OF A RECORD-BREAKING METROPOLIS*In a nutshell

Climb to the 124th floor of the Burj Khalifa, 829.84 meters of skyscraper: the tallest in the world. You're in Dubai, the city of records, and you can see it from a unique vantage point. Then come down and lose yourself among the more than 1,200 stores in the Dubai Mall. Then you rise again to the Dubai Frame, a building that ~~is~~ is the biggest frame on the planet.

Main stops

- Burj Khalifa: elevator trip up to the At the Top panoramic terrace
- Dubai Mall: free time for shopping
- Dubai Frame: interior visit

The programme

- Take the elevator to ~~At the Top~~ the Burj Khalifa panoramic terrace: it travels at 18 meters per second ~~is~~ one of Dubai's many records.
- When the doors open, you'll find yourself with your guide on the 124th floor, a unique observation deck from which you can explore Downtown Dubai in complete calm, the modern area of the city, and snap photos like there's no tomorrow.
- Another of the city's ~~giants~~ is the Dubai Mall, where you can shop among more than 1,200 stores and lose count of its architectural and design details. There's even a waterfall!
- You head back up to the Dubai Frame, a frame-shaped building among the green lawns of Zabeel Park. You climb onto the Sky Deck, which at a height of 150 meters connects the two vertical sides of the ~~frame~~ Frame. You'll be surprised: the deck has a glass floor that changes from opaque to transparent as you walk.
- Look up: from here you can see both the futuristic landscape of the city and its oldest quarter. You'll discover that Dubai looks to the future, but hasn't forgotten its past.
- Places on this excursion are limited. We recommend booking in advance.
- Being one of the main attractions of the city, there is the possibility of finding long queues at the entrance.
- We recommend wearing clothing that is suitable for the culture of a Muslim country.
- Slight changes may be made to itineraries and the length of excursions in order to safeguard your health and comply with regulations and the safety protocol.

Dubai STEERING YOUR DINGHY OVER THE CREST OF DUBAI'S WAVES

In a nutshell

Step on the fun accelerator: as you steer your two-seater motor dinghy, you'll see Dubai from a unique perspective, as you cut through the waves at full speed. Follow the guide's tips and race towards the famous palm-shaped island, past incredible resorts, futuristic skyscrapers and a record-breaking Ferris wheel. Get ready for the perfect aquatic-themed gift and plenty of excitement.

Main stops

- Panoramic tour of Dubai Marina in a motor dinghy, to be driven by you: Palm Jumeirah island; panoramic Ferris wheel on Bluewaters Island; Atlantis The Palm; Burj Al Arab

The programme

- An aquatic adventure in total freedom to capture Dubai at its most charming: slip behind the helm of your two-seater motor dinghy and enjoy unusual views and lots of fun!
- What do you need? We will provide you with a thermal water bottle full of water, while the few simple instructions on how to drive your boat will be delivered by your guide.
- Now that you're feeling more confident steering your speed boat... we're off! Spoiler alert: you'll surge past one of the world's most incredible skylines, which looks like it's arrived straight from the future.

- It'll really hit you when you reach the Palm Jumeirah, the luxurious artificial island in the shape of a palm tree. Ask your guide: they know each of its 'branches' in detail.
- Between one burst of speed and the next, you'll be able to admire the sea reflected in the windows of the buildings, the majestic Arabian arch of the Atlantis The Palm hotel and Bluewaters Island, dominated by the world's largest Ferris wheel.
- Slow down in front of the enormous sail of the Burj Al Arab skyscraper, inspired by the shape of an Arabian sambuk ship: one of the many riches of the Emirates, and one which defies the laws of gravity!
- Only bring what you need: a swimming costume, a backpack with beach towel, a hat and sunscreen.
- This experience will be narrated in English.
- Minimum age: 18 years.
- The excursion is not suitable if you have knee or back problems or are pregnant.

DUBAI AT DAWN: DUNES AND DESERT IN A 4X4

In a nutshell

Have you ever experienced the thrill of exploring the Dubai desert at the first light of dawn? Today you'll do it in a 4x4 off-road vehicle, darting between the dunes as you take in a succession of wild views. Making your tour memorable will be the colors of the golden landscape, just begging to be photographed, and breakfast in a Bedouin camp!

Main stops

- Safari in a 4x4 off-road vehicle in the Dubai desert
- Dawn over the desert: photo stop
- Breakfast in a Bedouin camp

The programme

- It's an early alarm call but it'll be worth it: in a 4x4 off-road vehicle, you'll cross Dubai while it is still illuminated by the night-time lights and, as the sky gradually brightens, you'll draw closer to the desert.

- A few tips from the driver and the adventure begins, to the tune of dune bashing. Meaning? You'll dart between the dunes at full speed.
- The adrenaline gives way to amazement when you stop to photograph the dawn over the desert. This really is a sensational way to start the day!
- Feeling hungry after all the thrills? Excellent, it's time for breakfast with a view of the desert in a Bedouin camp: the perfect end to a memorable experience.
- Minimum age: 4 years.
- Wear comfortable shoes and clothing suitable for the experience.

DUBAI MIRACLE GARDEN

In a nutshell

A tour to visit the largest flower garden in the world.

Main stops

- Dubai Miracle Garden
- Photo stop Zaabeel Palace
- Photo stop Museum of the Future

The programme

- The Dubai Miracle Garden is a universe of floral wonders
- Over 50 million flowers and 250 million plants are the stars of incredible and spectacular installations.
- Among the most famous are the gigantic life-size reproduction of the Emirates A380 aircraft; the breathtaking path made of enormous floral hearts (one of the park's most visited and 'Instagrammed' attractions) and the 15-metre wide clock
- Disney Avenue again, home to Disney's most famous characters and, in 2018, awarded a Guinness World Record for the world's largest topiary structure.

- But there are so many wonders and they change with the seasons!
- On the way back we will have time for two photo stops at the Zaabeel Palace, the official residence of the royal family of the Emir of Dubai, and the Museum of the Future. This steel and glass structure with its distinctive 'bull-like' shape is among the 14 most beautiful museums in the world, according to National Geographic.

EXPLORING THE CONTRASTING CHARACTER OF DUBAI

In a nutshell

Dubai's identity is one of contrasts: with your guide, discover its modern side in front of one of the world's tallest hotels and the Jumeirah Mosque, then delve into its ancient heart in the Al-Bastakiya neighborhood. And that's not all: you can cross the canal that divides the city in two on a boat that only exists here. Finally, plunge into the typical wares of the souks of spices and gold.

Main stops

- Burj Al Arab; Jumeirah mosque: photo stop
- Al-Bastakiya neighborhood: Barjeel towers
- Trip on a traditional wooden 'abra' boat, between the banks of the Dubai Creek
- Deira neighborhood: wander the alleyways of the souk of spice and gold

The programme

- You can only say that you truly know Dubai once you've explored both sides of the city.
- It will be clear which is most innovative, as you stand in front of the Burj Al Arab, a hotel that catches the eye due to its 321-meter height, and its shape, like a sail filled with wind.
- Meanwhile, as soon as you arrive in front of the Jumeirah Mosque, you'll understand why it is the most photographed monument in the city, with its mighty twin minarets and imposing dome, with striking geometric details.
- Then, as you pass through the Al-Bastakiya neighborhood with your guide, you'll see a whole other Dubai. Admire the stone houses of the old merchants and the famous wind towers, which served as ancient natural 'air conditioning' systems.
- Have you ever seen a Middle Eastern water taxi? Jump aboard an 'abra', a typical wooden boat, and navigate your way across the Dubai Creek, the canal that leads to the Deira neighborhood - one of the most vibrant of the old city.

- From the banks, you can already sense the local atmosphere. But just wait until the scent of the spice souk hits you: here, you can admire spices of all kinds and colors. Then, at the gold souk, everything glitters with precious jewelry and gold ingots.
- Wear clothing that is respectful of the culture of the country, avoiding garments that are too tight or low-cut.
- The excursion may take place in the morning or afternoon.

UNSPOILT OMAN: EXPLORING THE WADI AL ARBEIEEN IN A 4X4 VEHICLE

In a nutshell

An adventurous excursion to discover extraordinary landscapes, high rocky mountains and luxuriant oasis: astonishing natural environment with places and villages that seem to have been left almost untouched by time.

Main stops

- Mountain landscapes in a wealth of colours
- The Wadi Al Arbeieen with its luxuriant vegetation
- Small lakes and natural swimming pools formed by the river
- Water bashing in the 4x4 vehicle (if possible)
- Natural pools
- Canyon and lunar landscapes formed by volcanic rocks
- The Wadi Dayqah

The programme

- We set off from Muscat in our 4x4 vehicles and head for the Wadi Al Arbeieen. After just a few kilometres, we already find ourselves immersed in an almost lunar landscape where we are bewildered and captivated by mountains with a surreal appearance in a wealth of colours.
- We leave the tarmacked road and drive along an off-road trail to the Wadi Al Arbeieen, a magnificent canyon with high sides and lush vegetation where the river has created incredibly transparent blue-green lakes and pools, begging to be photographed.

- Near the Wadi we also visit a typical Omani village where the simple rhythms of daily life have not been affected by modernity: its inhabitants are always polite and welcoming and the wonderful children approach us with their disarming smiles.
- At the end of our visit to the village we return to our 4x4 adventure, experiencing the excitement of 'water bashing' (fording the stream), which is not difficult but great fun.
- Next, we head for a place where those wishing to swim can do so, surrounded by a natural amphitheatre of rare beauty and immersed in an imposing natural environment.
- At the end of this relaxing break we travel along an off-road trail where we can admire breathtaking scenery: narrow canyons alternate with lunar landscapes characterized by volcanic rocks with colours ranging from grey to red and from lava black to ochre pink.
- We then arrive at the village of Mazara, with the ancient ruins of its castle that dominate the surrounding valley.
- We continue towards the Wadi Dayqah where a dam forms a magnificent lake completely surrounded by the mountains.
- During the return journey we travel a few more kilometres off-road: the excitement and intense memories of the tour will stay with us for days to come.
- Please wear comfortable walking shoes.
- Guests must be in good physical health.
- This excursion is not recommended to guests with mobility problems, with back or neck problems.
- Visitors should be dressed appropriately according to the culture of the country being visited.
- This excursion involves a ride of about 4 hours on an asphalt track and off road onboard a safari style jeep.
- This excursion does not feature a guide, the driver will provide information in English.
- Places are limited, so please reserve early.
- Minors under the age of 4 cannot participate in the excursion.
- Pregnant woman can not participate.
- We cannot guarantee the places on the same jeeps to families.
- It is not possible to carry strollers inside the jeeps.

NIZWA AND THE FORT OF JABRIN

In a nutshell

An evocative visit to the city of Nizwa and Oman's most beautiful fort.

Main stops

- The Nizwa area
- Jabrin Fort
- Lunch at the Falaj Hotel
- Nizwa Fort
- Nizwa Souk

The programme

- We will leave the port of Mina Qaboos and after a journey of approximately two and a half hours we will arrive in Nizwa, a city in the country's hinterland that was once its historic capital. From here we go to Jabrin Fort, built in the 17th century as an elegant country house by Imam Bil'Arab bin Sultan. It is considered, with good reason, as one of the most picturesque and imposing forts in Oman, a wonderful example of defensive architecture which preserves numerous interesting finds inside, as well as everyday objects of the time.
- At the end of the visit we will have lunch at the Falaj Daris Hotel.
- In the afternoon we visit the majestic Nizwa Fort. Built in 1668, in addition to being the oldest in Oman it is also the most visited monument in the country. The enormous round central watchtower with a diameter of 45 metres which took 30 years to build is particularly impressive. From the top of the tower we can enjoy a magnificent view of the city, the mosque and the mountains that surround Nizwa.
- At the end of our visit to the fort, we head to Nizwa's souk (the old market) where we find locally crafted items such as silverware, copperware and fabrics.
- At the end of the excursion we return to the port of Muscat.
- Slight changes may be made to itineraries and the length of excursions in order to safeguard your health and comply with regulations and the safety protocol.
- Guests must abide by appropriate dress code, modest, no revealing or see-through clothing.
- Visitors should be dressed appropriately according to the culture of the country being visited.
- Please wear comfortable walking shoes.

- This excursion is not recommended to guests with mobility problems.
- Places are limited, so please reserve in advance.
- The bus ride between Muscat and Nizwa takes about 2,5 hours each way.

THRILLING EXCURSION WITH AN ENCOUNTER WITH DOLPHINS

In a nutshell

An unforgettable adventure in the crystal clear waters of Oman to meet the dolphins.

Main stops

- Boat Excursion
- Dolphin sighting

The programme

- After leaving Port Sultan Qaboos, we travel to Marina Bander al-Rowdha, where we will spend a truly unique day with the dolphins. The dolphin sightings will take place on speedboats, on which water and fruit juice will be served during the excursion. Although sightings are not one hundred per cent guaranteed, our experienced fishermen sail out to sea every morning to locate the dolphins and inform us of their movements. Furthermore, they are very common in the waters around the Omani coastline and around Al Fahal Island where they often enjoy chasing tuna. Therefore the likelihood of an encounter is very high.
- You need to be physically fit to take part in this excursion.
- This excursion is not recommended for guests with mobility problems.
- We recommend that you book early because only a limited number of places are available.
- This tour does not feature a guide, but an English-speaking local escort.
- Although the likelihood of an encounter with the dolphins is very high, sighting is not 100% guaranteed.
- This tour is not recommended to guests who suffer from seasickness.
- Slight changes may be made to itineraries and the length of excursions in order to safeguard your health and comply with regulations and the safety protocol.

Type*MuscatA DIVE INTO ARAB CULTURE AND IN MUSCAT'S BREATHTAKING SEABED*In a nutshell*Main stops

- Muttrah district and characteristic Suk
- Al Alam Palace and the ancient prisons of the Mirani and Al Jalali Forts
- Boat ride to spot dolphins
- Stop on Bander Khayran beach, a favourite with diving and snorkelling enthusiasts
- BBQ on the beach

The programme

- We set off from the Mina Sultan Qaboos port along the amazing seafont of the Muttrah district surrounding the entire gulf and boasting period palaces and mosques with tall minarets. We remain surprised by the lack of skyscrapers, which makes us feel as if we are in a fishing village rather than in a capital.
- We stop at the Muttrah Suk, one of the oldest in the Arab world where we can still admire the amazing 18th-century merchant houses. We venture into the busy alleyways teeming with stalls selling spices, fabric, jewellery and other local products for one hour of shopping in the shade of the palm trees and of the tall clay walls delimiting the market.
- We then head to Al Alam Palace, the official residence of Sultan Qaboos. Although it is only possible to visit the exterior, this perfect example of contemporary Arab architecture truly deserves a stop. The Mirani and Jalali Forts can also be visited from the outside only: both were used as prisons and the latter is now home to a museum dedicated to the country's cultural heritage.
- A few motorboats await us at the Bander Al Rowdha Marina to provide us with a unique experience of dolphin sighting. Although it is not guaranteed that we will actually see these marvellous mammals, we trust in the experience of the local fishermen who take us to the places where they are most likely to be spotted. After this incredible experience, we head to Bander Khayran beach, a reservoir with a spectacular seabed where we can enjoy a spot of snorkelling and might even exceptionally encounter some turtles, for example. We savour a delicious BBQ lunch cooked especially for us.
- We then return to the Bander Al Rowdha Marina where we get back onto our coach and to the Mina Sultan Qaboos port.

- There will not be a guide on the excursion. A local escort will provide information in English.

Type*MuscatMUSCAT: FRAGRANCES, HOLINESS AND UNIQUE FRAGMENTS OF ARABIA

In a nutshell

The charm of the Sultanate of Oman takes a thousand forms: it imbues the architecture, fragrances and culture of Muscat. With your guide, discover the inestimable value of the Sultan Qaboos Grand Mosque and visit a luxury perfume factory. Then, step into a family-run museum: Mr Latif will be waiting for you with dates, coffee and fascinating stories. Finally, lose yourself among the treasures of the Mutrah souq.

Main stops

- Sultan Qaboos Grand Mosque of Muscat: internal visit
- Amouage perfume factory: internal visit
- Family-run Bait Adam museum: visit to the interior and welcome from the Al Balushi family with dates and coffee
- Mutrah souq: free time

The programme

- When you arrive in Muscat, you almost feel as if you are stepping into a modern fairy tale. This sensation is owed to the timeless atmosphere of the place.
- You can also get a feel for this whilst wandering with your guide in the Grand Mosque of Sultan Qaboos: make your way between sparkling chandeliers and walls of precious marble, and admire the second largest carpet in the world. Did you know that it was made by as many as 600 weavers?
- Then, in Amouage's artisan perfume factory, discover the modern aspects of Arabic perfumery tradition. Here, the tanks, laboratories and raw materials from the Middle East have been creating world-famous fragrances since 1983.
- Meanwhile, at the Bait Adam museum, you will find yourself surrounded by rare collections of photos, coins and paintings from Oman, personally curated by Latif and his family. And that's not all: they will welcome you in the local way, offering you dates, coffee and anecdotes about the traditions of the place.
- Before returning, enjoy a sightseeing bus tour along the Corniche, the palace-lined waterside promenade that encircles the gulf, to the Mutrah souq, Muscat's ancient covered bazaar.
- Take in the scents of incense, and admire the textiles and handicrafts. What will you take home with you?
- In order to enable you to access the mosque according to regulations, please wear suitable clothing: women must fully cover their heads, arms down to the wrists and legs down to the ankles, avoiding white, tight-fitting clothing. Men should wear long trousers and avoid sleeveless shirts. Shoes must be removed.
- On Fridays, during public holidays and in the event of extraordinary closures, the Sultan Qaboos Grand Mosque can only be visited from the outside.
- Minimum age to visit the mosque: 12 years.

DISCOVER THE ARCHITECTURAL AND CULTURAL BEAUTIES OF DOHA

In a nutshell

A tour to discover the architectural and cultural beauties of Doha and surround ourselves with the country's amazing historical heritage - from the origins of Qatar to the present day, enjoying glimpses of everyday life between cultural spaces and souks. A dialogue between past and present that comes to life in a unique museum.

Main stops

- Drive along the amazing Corniche, Doha's enchanting promenade
- Katara Cultural Village

- Astonishing National Museum of Qatar also known as the Desert rose
- Visit of souk Waqif

The programme

- We leave the port on a comfortable coach and travel along the famous Corniche, the promenade that stretches 7 km covering the entire Bay of Doha, which is dotted with ancient and modern buildings. Our destination is Katara Cultural Village, a sophisticated development centre boasting many theatres, galleries and facilities for entertainment and cultural events, which reinterprets the region's architectural heritage in an innovative way and helps promoting the culture of Qatar.
- Katara Cultural Village is divided into various different settings and we are free to walk around the main area, built in the style of the typical alleyways of Qatar called Al Fareej. We can also admire more modern areas with all kinds of attractions such as restaurants, cafés, green spaces and information centres.
- We continue our tour with the National Museum of Qatar, located in a unique building known as Desert rose due to its peculiar structure designed by the French architect Jean Nouvel. Among the enormous disks intersecting at different angles, we spot the palace renovated by Sheik Abdullah bin Jassim Al Thani, the ancient residence of the royal family, then seat of the Government and of the Museum of Heritage. We enter the Museum and visit the so-called three chapters dedicated to the history of the country from its origins to the present day also illustrating life in Qatar.
- Back on board our coach, we will travel to the oldest part of the city, Old Doha, a bustling area where the centre stands out with its mosque and famous Souq Waqif, the fascinating market that retains the authentic ambience of the past.
- We will visit the souk and enjoy some shopping. Crossed by wide roads, the souk is dotted with cafés and restaurants with terraces, which give way to a myriad of typical little shops managed exclusively by men on the side roads, where you can truly find anything: ceramics and textiles, spices, Arab sweets, candied fruit and traditional clothing as well as classic souvenirs.
- We then get back to the coach taking us back to the port.
- Space is limited, so please reserve early.
- The excursion may take place in the morning or in the afternoon.

DOHA (QATAR) UP AND DOWN THE SEALINE DESERT ON A 4X4 BUS

In a nutshell

The high dunes of Qatar await you: on board a special 4x4 bus, you'll go up and down on the golden sand of Sealine, amid desert views and unique sounds, produced by the windswept sands. The surprises don't end: a dive where the desert meets the sea and a drink in the shade of the tented camp lend refreshment to the adventure.

Main stops

- Sightseeing bus trip from the port of Doha to Sealine
- 4x4 bus trip among the dunes of Sealine
- Refreshments and free time at the tented camp

The programme

- Climb on board the bus headed to the Qatari desert: there's no shortage of comfort for taking picture-postcard photos of the country's southern coast. The towns grow distant, the desert advances and you're at Sealine, the gateway to your adventure in the desert.
- For the full experience, you'll have to change vehicle: climb aboard a special 4x4 bus, perfectly equipped to head up and down the dunes that extend as far as the eye can see. They can reach a height of as much as 40 meters!
- Keep your eyes open: with a bit of luck the desert oryx may emerge, the elegant white antelopes that reign over these arid lands.
- But in the calm of Sealine beach, there's more: the grains of sand sliding in unison produce a particular sound, known as 'the song of the dunes'. Listen.
- And to finish, a swim in the blue of the Arabian Gulf and a drink in the shade of a safari tent add a note of relaxation to the experience.
- This tour does not feature a guide.

4x4 SAFARI: ADVENTURE IN THE ABU DHABI DESERT

In a nutshell

Right in the middle of the Abu Dhabi desert, you can have a fun, high-adrenaline experience. Here, instead of skyscrapers, there are dunes up to 300 meters high, among which you'll dart on board a 4x4 driven by an expert driver. Jump up: it's time for adventure in the Al Khatim desert.

Main stops

- 4x4 adventure in the Al Khatim desert
- Refreshments and photo stops during the safari

The programme

- On board the 4x4 you cross Abu Dhabi and come to the Al Khatim desert. After leaving the skyscrapers behind, now you're in front of dunes up to 300 meters high.
- While the driver prepares the tires for the route you're about to tackle, look around: the landscape you see today isn't the same as the landscape yesterday and it won't be the same tomorrow, because the wind shapes it constantly.
- Fasten your seat belts: the adrenaline rises while the driver takes you to jump among the dunes, drops into the valleys and climbs back up, and it'll seem like you're riding the desert itself.
- Make use of the stops to capture the views, the ghaf trees, the national plant of the United Arab Emirates, and the many camels you'll come across. It's clicks all the way up to time for refreshments before the return to Abu Dhabi.

above all photographed. An unmissable mecca for all shopping lovers.

Main stops

- Craft Museum (internal visit)
- Qasr Al Watan
- Shopping at the Marina and Yas Mall
- Wahat Al Karama, Grand Mosque
- Ferrari World, Louvre Museum

The programme

- We will start at Union Square with giant reproductions of typical Arabian objects, such as coffee pots and cups
- We then visit the Handicrafts Museum to learn about the heritage and sophistication of Emirati handicrafts
- We continue our tour of the city with photo stops at the Emirates Palace, Abu Dhabi's most luxurious 7-star hotel, and Qasr Al Watan, the Presidential Palace, an icon of the Abu Dhabi skyline
- After a shopping break at the Marina Mall, we resume our tour with the Wahat Al Karama, a memorial consisting of 31 huge panels paying tribute to the heroes who fell for their country and the Grand Mosque, the most famous attraction with the tomb of Sheikh Zayed, the Father of the Nation. The mosque is magnificent and immense with four minarets, 82 domes and thousands of columns.
- To get rid of our last shopping craving, we enter the Yas Mall, the largest in Abu Dhabi near Ferrari World, the first theme park for the Maranello red car and the Louvre Museum, which is a masterpiece of architecture
- Before returning, we take a short break at the Dates Market with a wide selection of sweets and dried fruits.
- During the stops at the Marina Mall and the Yas Mall, shopping can be replaced by paying a supplement directly on board, respectively with a visit to the Qasr Al Watan Palace and the Ferrari World (here if you wish you can stay longer by jumping then the stop at the Louvre Museum and the Dates Market before returning to the port)

CAPTURING THE PAST AND PRESENT OF ABU DHABI

In a nutshell

What makes Abu Dhabi the pride of the United Arab Emirates? Its unique blend of ancient and modern. So follow your guide into a museum that is dedicated to the life of a great emir, take the bus through luxurious neighborhoods and then stop off to take a photo of the city's futuristic skyline and the Sultan Qaboos Grand Mosque. Finally, stroll through a village from another era: now, even the Abu Dhabi of the past will hold no more secrets for you!

Main stops

- Sheikh Zayed Grand Mosque; Al-Ittihad square: photo stop
- Zayed Heritage Center: internal visit
- Sightseeing bus tour through the Al Bateen neighborhood to the Emirates Palace Hotel and the Qasr Al Watan Presidential Palace
- Marina Cafe: photo stop to capture the Abu Dhabi skyscrapers
- Heritage Village: internal visit
- Sightseeing tour of Abu Dhabi across the Corniche

The programme

- When you think of Abu Dhabi, a visionary city springs to mind. But what if we told you that it is so much more than this?
- Prepared to be stunned as you arrive: the dazzling white marble, the gold of the friezes and the sheer size of the Sheikh Zayed Grand Mosque will leave you speechless. Click?
- Keep some space on your camera roll for Al-Ittihad square, which means 'union' in Arabic. It is no coincidence that the monuments here take the shape of a coffee pot and an incense burner, symbols of local hospitality.
- Then, follow your guide into the museum dedicated to Zayed, founder and first president of the UAE. You'll find photos and archaeological finds which reveal the history of the country under his reign, along with his most cherished objects, such as the vehicles he used to travel in.
- Take the bus through the Al Bateen neighborhood, past the world's most luxurious hotel and the presidential palace, before stopping at the Marina Cafe. Here, the outlines of the city's skyscrapers look great in a photo at any time of day. Now it's your turn.
- At the end, return to the roots of Abu Dhabi at Heritage Village: a reconstruction that catapults you back to the rural origins of a desert village. Wander between tents, bazaars and ancient customs that have been preserved through time.
- Wear clothing that is respectful of the culture of the country, avoiding garments that are too tight or low-cut.

- On Fridays, the tour will take place in the afternoon and the visit to the Zayed Heritage Center will be replaced with a photo stop at the Sheikh Zayed Grand Mosque.
- In case of closure of Zayed Heritage Center, you will visit The House of Artisans.

YOUR CHOICE OF THEME PARK IN ABU DHABI

In a nutshell

An excursion that includes your choice of one of three theme parks in Abu Dhabi: Ferrari World for sports fans who love speed and the racing world; Warner Brothers World if you want to see famous cartoon characters; and finally, Yas Waterworld - a huge water park with 43 attractions including slides, water features and swimming pools. Entertainment guaranteed!

Main stops

- Your choice of park from:
- Ferrari World
- Warner Brothers World
- Yas Waterworld

The programme

- The first theme park we can choose is Ferrari World located on Yas Island. It is the biggest theme park in the world dedicated entirely to Ferrari and contains a track, a theatre, many attractions, a 3D cinema, the biggest Ferrari store, a classic car gallery, a miniature reproduction of the paddock and Italy, not to mention a wide selection of dining options with typical Italian menus.
- Ferrari World really stands out. Under the enormous red roof there are 37 breath-taking attractions distributed over an area of 200,000 m² and the building is designed to resemble the curved lines of a Ferrari and desert sand dunes. The park pays tribute to the passion and style of the company from Maranello.
- Ferrari World is open all year round and offers a truly unique experience for visitors of all ages. The most famous attractions for adrenaline junkies are the fastest roller coasters in the world, called the Formula Rossa, which accelerate from 0 to 250 km/h in just 4.9 seconds. The park also offers gentler attractions suitable for children, simulators, electric go-karts and live shows, etc.
- The second park that we can choose from is Warner Brothers World, another of the biggest theme parks in the world. It is fully air-conditioned and dedicated to all the legendary characters from the Warner Bros. cartoons.
- From Superman to Batman and Wonder Woman to Bugs Bunny, Scooby-Doo and Fred Flintstone: all these characters and many more can be found in the building that spans 153,290 m² and houses 29 top-class attractions using innovative technology, interactive attractions for families, unique live shows, many restaurants and exclusive shops.
- The magical experience starts as soon as visitors step foot in the park and are transported through the different worlds of action and adventure, divided into six themed areas: Gotham City, Metropolis, Cartoon Junction, Bedrock, Dynamite Gulch and Warner Bros Plaza. They all have original scenes and settings, plus themed restaurants.
- The third and final park to choose from is Yas Waterworld, a futuristic water park spanning an area as large as 15 football pitches, with 43 attractions, five of which are brand new.
- There are intertwining slides, water features and swimming pools, plus countless special effects and illuminations to entertain visitors. One of the highlights is the largest tornado in the world and the first to be powered using hydromagnetic technology. It is 235 metres long and is wider than ever before, capable of holding up to six people.

- For adrenaline junkies there is Bubble Barrel - with its three metre high waves, it is the biggest sheet wave for flowboarding and bodyboarding in the world.
- Bandit Bomber, on the other hand, is a 550-metre roller coaster circuit featuring laser effects and water jets that allow visitors to engage in a water battle with spectators on land.
- This excursion does not include a guide but a local co-ordinator will be present.
- Children less than 120 cm tall are not permitted on some rides.
- Yas Waterworld Park will be closed for maintenance from January 8 to February 4, 2024.

THE TWO ICONS OF ABU DHABI, UNTIL THE EVENING LIGHTS

In a nutshell

Take in the grandeur of Abu Dhabi in its symbolic locations. First, by losing yourself in the rooms of the Qar Al-Waan presidential palace, an icon of Emirati prestige. Then, when evening falls, in the Sheikh Zayed Grand Mosque, the biggest in the country. Seeing it at this time has an even greater impact, amid lights that turn the dome blue and flood the porticoes with gold.

Main stops

- Presidential palace: interior visit
- Sheikh Zayed Grand Mosque: interior evening visit

The programme

- Come to the Qar Al-Waan presidential palace, an icon of the grandeur of the Emirates. Once inside, you will see shining marble, gold and crystal. And by passing from one environment to another, you will encounter different artistic influences, learning a great deal about the history and culture of the country.
- Then, you enter another atmosphere in front of the four minarets of the Grand Mosque that stand out against the evening sky.
- Considered a symbol of brotherhood between nations by Sheikh Zayed, it is a pure white colossus by day, while at this time it is a feast of light and color. Blue floods the walls and envelops the 82 domes, while the porticoes turn into golden walkways.
- The Wow effect continues inside, while your guide shows you the world's largest hand-knotted carpet: 5,700 square meters of wool and cotton, on which no fewer than 1,200 Iranian knotters worked.

- Seeing this icon of Abu Dhabi is an unmissable experience. Observing it in the evening leaves you open-mouthed.
- In order to enable you to access the mosque according to regulations, please wear suitable clothing: women must fully cover their heads, arms down to the wrists and legs down to the ankles, avoiding white, tight-fitting clothing. Men should wear long trousers and avoid sleeveless shirts. Shoes must be removed.

Abu Dhabi IN A HELICOPTER OVER THE CITY OF SKYSCRAPERS

In a nutshell

Climb on board a helicopter and, together with your pilot, discover Abu Dhabi from a unique vantage point. You'll observe this luxurious, hypermodern city, which arose between desert and ocean, from above. While you fly over the spaces, skyscrapers and buildings that make Abu Dhabi an icon of wealth, try to imagine its past as a fishing village: will you manage?

Main stops

- Sightseeing helicopter trip over the city of Abu Dhabi

The programme

- During the helicopter flight, your pilot will point out the most iconic locations in Abu Dhabi. Cast your eye along the course of the Corniche, the city promenade that runs along the coast for 8 km. From up here, you'll get a good look at the contrast between the skyscrapers on one side and the white beaches lapped by the water of the Persian Gulf on the other.
- Fly over Marina Mall, a city within the city, with more than 400 luxury shopping stores, a 30-floor-high observation tower and various adventure areas.
- When the arch of the Fairmont Hotel and domes of the Emirates Palace appear beneath you, you'll clearly understand how futuristic Abu Dhabi is, but also how regal and sumptuous.

- They're hotels, but seem like palaces and to offer services worthy of a king. Just think that the Emirates Palace has ceilings adorned with 24 karat gold and serves its guests cappuccinos with gold flakes!
- Before landing, you'll set your eyes on the architectural masterpiece that is the Grand Mosque: 4 minarets, 82 domes, 1096 marble columns. Shall we take off?
- Minimum age: 4 years.
- The helicopter can accommodate 6 people: it may be necessary to share the vehicle with other passengers.
- To prepare the experience, it will be necessary to provide passport and some technical information 48 hours in advance.

Abu Dhabi GREAT MOSQUE BY NIGHT

In a nutshell

We visit the Sheikh Zayed Grand Mosque, which is made even more charming by the plays of light and shadows at sundown.

Main stops

- Sheikh Zayed Grand Mosque
- Wahat Al Karama
- Sightseeing tour of the city centre
- Stop for photos of the Abu Dhabi

The programme

- As the sun sets, we leave the port behind us to venture into Abu Dhabi and reach one of its symbolic monuments: the Sheikh Zayed Grand Mosque, one of the most imposing in the world that can accommodate up to 40,000 people and commissioned by the Emir to whom it is dedicated, considered the father of the United Arab Emirates.
- We admire its fascinating combination of architectural elements from various regions of the Islamic world as skilfully-placed lights emphasize the candid domes that dominate the long porticoes.

- We enter to see the interior, which leaves us open-mouthed due to its grandiosity and magnificence.
- We get back to our coach headed to the Wahat Al Karama memorial, dedicated to fallen soldiers and made up of 31 imposing aluminium-plated plaques: from here, we can enjoy a spectacular view of the Grand Mosque.
- We return to the centre of Abu Dhabi passing by the Emirates Palace Hotel, a true icon of Arab luxury, and end our excursion with a stop for photos at the breakwall to capture the Abu Dhabi skyline.

LOUVRE AND SIGHTSEEING TOUR OF ABU DHABI, HERITAGE VILLAGE

In a nutshell

Let us discover some of the most famous and interesting sights in Abu Dhabi with a pleasant tour, see a reconstruction of a typical town before the oil discovery-driven modernisation and end the excursion with the brand new Louvre Abu Dhabi.

Main stops

- Sheikh Zayed Grand Mosque (external visit)
- Corniche
- Emirates Palace Hotel (external visit)
- Heritage Village
- Louvre Abu Dhabi

The programme

- We kick off our excursion with a sightseeing tour of Abu Dhabi that allows us to appreciate the many faces of this modern cosmopolitan city.
- We make a first stop for photos at the Sheikh Zayed Grand Mosque, one of the most imposing in the world and true oasis of peace characterised by eclectic mix of typical architectural elements from various regions in the Islamic world.

- We continue along Corniche, the enchanting coastal road separating the tall skyscrapers from the white beaches, and stop at the Emirates Palace Hotel to snap a few photos of this true icon of luxury - the perfect combination of Arab splendour and the latest technologies.
- We then reach the Heritage Village, which houses a small museum and reconstructed homes illustrating the day-to-day activities of the local community before oil was discovered at the end of the 1950s.
- The last stop on our tour is Louvre Abu Dhabi, designed and built as a museum-city and a true masterpiece of contemporary architecture where we can admire artwork from all over the world.
- Places on this excursion are limited. We recommend booking early.
- Appropriate clothing is required in respect of the culture of the visited country.
